President's Report:

- Volunteering
  - We are looking for volunteers for the following and ask grade coordinators to reach out to their parents:
 Concession Volunteer Coordinator
 Game Night Coordinator
 Program / Bracelet Sales Coordinator
 50/50 Coordinator
 Statistician
  - All grade coordinators confirmed; Middle School – Annie Pastor, Freshman – Michele Pate, Sophomore – Angie Peyton, Junior – Kim Scott and Senior - Mary Beth Moore
- Fundraising
  - Discount Cards are being printed and team sales day Saturday 5/19
  - Tennis Bubble Take Down Saturday 4/28 7:30am, coach handling sign ups, Sandi Short and MaryBeth Moore will coordinate snack for boys
  - Snap Raise rep presented fundraising opportunity where each player provides 20 emails for a 28 day campaign and fee can vary from 23%-30% depending on participation. We were assured that no emails are sold or used otherwise. Donations are tax deductible and eligible for corporate match. We plan to vote on using Snap Raise at next meeting. Please visit web site <https://www.snap-raise.com/> for more information.

- We will continue sponsoring nights at local restaurants once spring sports wrap up.
- Considering a youth football camp in July

- Dates

- 7 on 7 vs Canon McMillan 5/30 @Peters (PV)
- Possible JV 7 on 7 6/20-6/22 @Chartiers Houston Evenings
- Pitt Varsity 7 on 7 and Big Man Challenge 6/23

Coach Plack Report:

- Coaches

- Great visits to Villanova and Temple, Defensive coaches went to Pitt and Coaches attended clinic at Penn State, all good opportunities to increase knowledge
- Workouts going well with strong attendance, start outside 4/16 weather permitting

- Uniforms

- Nike will not make red jerseys and we do not have enough for team so discussed options with school and PTQB board
- School has agreed to purchase UA pants so PTQB will purchase new red Under Armor jerseys so we have home uniform, still negotiating pricing
- This may be a good cause for the Snap Raise platform

- Items to Purchase

- 9th grade travel gear, 7 on 7 shirts and weight room tshirt
